The Bulgarian Comparative Education Society (BCES) is the organizer of the BCES Annual International Conference and is the publisher of BCES Conference Books. The BCES is responsible for facilitating the editorial process and ensuring the overall success of the proceedings. The BCES responsibilities are:

- Ensuring Integrity: The BCES must ensure that the proceedings adhere to ethical standards and best practices in scholarly publishing.
- Clear Guidelines for Authors: The BCES must provide clear and comprehensive guidelines for authors, including paper requirements, submission deadline, and review process.
- Supporting Editors and Reviewers: The BCES must provide resources and guidance to editors and reviewers to facilitate a fair and efficient review process.
- Accessibility and Archiving: The BCES must ensure that the proceedings' content is accessible to the academic community and archived for long-term preservation.
- Addressing Ethical Issues: The BCES must cooperate with editors to address ethical concerns and take appropriate action, including issuing corrections, retractions, or expressions of concern when necessary.
- Timely Publication: The BCES ensures that the proceedings are published on time and made accessible to the academic community.
- Quality Assurance: The BCES monitors the overall quality of the proceedings and ensures that all accepted papers meet the conference's standards.
- Communication: The BCES maintains clear and consistent communication with authors, editors, and reviewers throughout the process.
